Spend a night at Rose Island Lighthouse

06/24/2010 01:00 AM EDT

Overnight stays at the Rose Island Lighthouse start at $185.

Rhode Island Bay Cruises

Have your own island this summer — for a night, a weekend or even a week. The option's open at Rose Island Lighthouse, located on a small plot of land in Narragansett Bay just south of the Newport Bridge.

You'll have peace, privacy and history in the 1912 building on the National Register of Historic Places. Get away from the bustle of the world, but be in plain sight of it.

Visitors pack food, beverages and ice. The lighthouse provides pots and dishes, blankets and linens, bottled water and do-it-yourself pumped water.

Overnight stays begin at $185. For more, visit roseislandlighthouse.org or call (401) 847-4242.
